Ollo with Shell Back

Light Task Chair

Ollo with shell back is designed to stay on pace with the spontaneous style of today's work—pivoting between people, locations and tasks without breaking stride.

The office is a place of constant, unpredictable motion, and Ollo provides easy, effortless support for you to seize moments along the way. A straightforward chair with streamlined performance, Ollo is always ready for you so that you can be ready for anything.

- A For the community yet responsive to the individual, the perfect fit only requires seat height adjustment
- B Two complementary materials are fused together to create a balanced back that provides the right amount of support for an open, informal sit
- C The Active Pivot control creates a smooth, effortless recline without any manual adjustments, dynamically responding to your movements

Warranty
